

THE ART OF DANCING WELL.

The Poetry of Motion Combined With Grace and Ease of Bearing in Good Society and Polite Manners in General—A Model Academy and a Famously Successful Instructor.

A most important and necessary adjunct to instruction in dancing is that the pupil shall receive competent instruction in deportment—an accomplishment which, gained in youth, is retained through life and adds vastly to ease and grace of bearing in society life and in every day life as well. Emerson naively says that a lady's consciousness of being well dressed, adds a comforting self-possession and satisfaction that religion is powerless to bestow. So an easy grace of deportment and propriety of manner is a distinct characteristic of well bred ladies and gentlemen in their daily social intercourse and is an accomplishment which, not won in youth, is a prize hard to win in later years.

One of the great secrets of the long and notable success of Professor P. Harvard Reilly is that he stands so pre-eminently in the first rank as a gifted instructor in dancing and deportment as well. No one who has seen his classes at work under the professor's eye can have failed to note his charming ease and observant watchfulness in detecting and his tact and bonhomie in correcting any gauche or committed by his pupils. The usages of polite society are inculcated by the professor as the pupil learns to dance and the highest excellence in the polite art of dancing well is easily attainable under the guidance of this accomplished teacher whose classes in dancing and deportment for many years have included people by thousands who are now leaders in cultivated society and who grace the social circles in which they move. Politeness, courtesy and decorum are acquired hand in hand and naturally, under his experienced teaching. He has won fame and name as a teacher in both the accomplishments of which we speak. Any one who should chance to drop in at Veru hall while his classes there are receiving instruction can not fail to note the delightful grace and decorum evidenced by the pupils as they pass through the giddy mazes of the dance. The children under his guidance do not shuffle through a quadrille, but display a grace of step and motion and a polished manner of saluting and addressing partners that is most pleasing and worthy of admiration. They do not hop, skip and jump in clumsy fashion in a round dance, but are examples of the poetry and grace of motion. This is attained only by unflinching care and watchfulness on the instructor's part, who gives conscientious attention to all defects and in courtly fashion and with consummate tact corrects errors, and insensibly as it were, leads the pupil out of error in manner to the finish of well bred society people. The professor begins at the beginning with each pupil and when his pupils graduate the imperfections are gone and the pupil is educated and prepared to be an ornament to a drawing room or salon. This success is attained by the professor with the oldest as well as the youngest of his pupils. It is a pleasure to give Professor Reilly the credit due his system and methods and his conscientious work. He is unquestionably a gentleman highly qualified for the profession which he adorns and dignifies and it is a pleasure to hear the many words of satisfaction and approval at his successful teaching expressed by ladies of our highest social circles as they watch their little buds and boys delightedly enjoying the dancing lesson and note their charming deportment as they so prettily glide through the giddy mazes. Professor Reilly has a series of four classes in this city and series of classes in Waterbury, Bridgeport, Hartford and Springfield.

FAIR HAVEN.

For some time past the members of Hiram Camp division, Sons of Temperance, have given musical and literary entertainments in their rooms with the understanding that the company giving the best presentation should be entertained by the other company. At the last meeting Company A entertained, the exercises consisting of two dialogues, in which Miss Ida Waters, Mrs. Edward Stiles and Ernest Potter took part; readings by Miss Waters, vocal solos by Mrs. Edward Stiles, piano solo by Miss Palmer and recitations by Mrs. William Baldwin. The committee decided that Company A had given the best entertainment and the members of that company will be entertained at supper by the members of Company B on Thursday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Lee Mitchell are expected home from their trip to Virginia this week.

On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., a meeting will be held for the purpose of forming an anti-cigarette league.

Captain and Mrs. Harvey Robinson have returned from Elizabeth City, N. C., their return having been hastened on account of the cold weather in the south. They returned via Norfolk, where they visited friends. The ice was so thick in the bay that the regular passenger steamer had been withdrawn and the Robinsons and other passengers made the trip on a powerful tugboat.

After the hearing on Tuesday of last week before Colonel H. M. Roberts of the United States engineers' corps ten days were given the opponents of the proposed drawbridge across Quinnipiac river to prepare and file affidavits showing if they could that when built the water above would not be used for purposes of navigation. As the case now stands it looks as if the bridge would be built, as Colonel Roberts believes that for public convenience free passage should be given for vessels above Grand Avenue. Colonel Roberts believes that a suitable bridge would cost about $80,000. The town and city will be allowed until the close of 1896 to complete the bridge.

C. S. Barrett, who has been driving one of the trucks of the Standard Oil company has left that employ and will engage in the carting business again. Mrs. H. W. Todd of Grand Avenue has been seriously ill for several weeks. John P. DeForest of Atwater street says the recent cold snap was the most severe of any since the winter of 1887. During that winter he was keeping a store in Woodbury and drove to New Haven in a sleigh every week for three months.

This evening the Young People's Guild of the Grace P. E. church will hold a musical and literary entertainment at Osborn hall. Among the artists to take part are Miss Edith Anne Porter, Miss Nellie Soran and Louis McCollum, violinists; a male quartet from Hillhouse High School, Miss Edith Barr, the talented child actress, and the "Samed" Banjo club of New Haven.

Miss Helen B. Mullins, who will dance the Spanish rondo in the "Bachelor's Dream," is a superb young dancer of great fame.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES.

Professor William Adams Brown to speak on the Development of Musical Instruments.

Professor William Adams Brown, Yale '86, of Union Theological seminary, will give, beginning this evening and on the three succeeding Wednesday evenings, in North Sheffield hall, a course of four lectures on the "Development of the Musical Instrument." The first of these lectures will be given this evening on the "Beginning of the Musical Instrument." These lectures were given last month at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York city under the auspices of Columbia college. They will be illustrated by two hundred lantern slides taken from the Crosby Brown collection of musical instruments, which is far the most complete in the country of all instruments, except those which illustrate the evolution of the piano-forte.

Mrs. Crosby Brown had close connection with misologists through her father, the Rev. Dr. Williams Adams, and the business relations of her husband extended widely, so she has had many agents in many lands for the securing of primitive instruments, some of which have now gone out of use. Most will be surprised at the great number and variety of instruments collected. Seven years ago the collection contained twenty kindred instruments from China alone—moon guitars, castanets, two-stringed violins, violins with cocoanut shell body, couch trumpets, bamboo flutes, etc. Japan, Korea, Siam, Burma, Palestine, Egypt, Algiers, Africa and Oceania are represented in this collection, as well as the aboriginal tribes of America and all the countries of Europe.

These lectures are intended primarily for the holders of tickets to the University Chamber concerts, but all lovers of music are invited to attend without tickets. They were largely attended and received much attention in New York.

Trapped.

Mr. Philip Winter has had rare sport lately hunting for and capturing rodents. Mr. Winter with the aid of a trap caught sixteen a few days since and yesterday "corralled" five more. Mr. Hartenstein's field spaniel "went for them" as they were "spilled" out of the trap and with much sagacity and "speed" "fished" them so that they could nevermore roam at their owner's will over the domain of either gentleman's place of business.

Prindle Street People Object.
There was a hearing before the county commissioners yesterday morning on a remonstrance to the granting of a license to Catello Donnamano to open a saloon at 12 Prindle street. The remonstrance was on the ground that the place was unsuitable for a saloon. Attorney Wolfe appeared for the applicant and Attorney Philip Pond for the objectors. The remonstrance to the application was signed by Edward Davis, Mrs. T. P. Markham, Mrs. L. Arvell, Mrs. A. Moebin, Abraham Silverthau and Maier Smirnov. The commissioners after hearing the evidence reserved their decision.

Big Foundry Destroyed.

Hartford, Feb. 19.—The Malleable Iron and Castings Foundry of Andrew Terry & Co. at Pequabuck, near the Terryville station, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. The plant occupied one and one-half acres and was one of the pioneer establishments in this country. Only the office was saved. The fire started from one of the annealing furnaces, where a great quantity of wool waste was stored. Fifty hands were employed at the foundry. Loss will be $150,000, nearly covered by insurance.

Ground was broken for the foundry on November 24, 1847, by Andrew Terry, a brother of James Terry, the first president of the Eagle Lock company. In 1860 Mr. Terry associated with himself O. D. Hunter and R. D. H. Allen. These men formed a joint stock company with a capital of $15,000, afterwards increased to $20,000.

Postoffice Baseball Team.

The clerks and carriers of the post-office have organized a baseball team with Walter Downs manager, Frank Beecher captain, Thomas J. Stanford secretary and T. H. Gill treasurer. Games will be arranged with Bridgeport, Hartford, or the postoffice teams of any other city in New England or out of it, the members of which can play ball.

Electric Road Notes.

A petition is being circulated and signed by many residents of this city and Branford for the extension of the New Haven Street Railway company's Lake Saltonstall line to Branford.

Another petition which is being widely circulated and freely signed is one asking the New Haven Street Railway company to lay tracks along Townsend avenue. The road has already obtained permission to do this.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.

WOMAN'S SUFFERING.

RELIEVED BY MAIL. HOW IT IS DONE.

How a Woman Works for Her Sex.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Seated at her desk in the bureau of correspondence, this wonderful woman opens her letters from all parts of the world. A few extracts from their contents tell the story:—

FROM IOWA. "I am in a very bad condition. My courses have stopped from catching cold, and the pain is fearful. I am all bloated up and the pain in lower part of my body is terrible. My back and head ache all the time. What shall I do for it?"

Des Moines. Mrs. Lizzie DeCline, 224 Grand Street, Jersey City, relates her troubles, from which she was relieved and cured by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She ends her letter by saying, "I owe all to you."

FROM NEW JERSEY. Mrs. Newton Cobb, of Manchester, O., writes: "I used eight bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I am happy to say it has cured me of painful menstruations and backache. My suffering every month was dreadful. The doctors gave me morphine to ease the pain; nothing to cure me. Oh, I want to tell every one who is suffering from these troubles what I have written to Mrs. Pinkham, and been cured by her advice and medicine."

FROM OHIO. Miss Jennie —, Chicago, states that she is twenty-two years of age, occupation, saleswoman in large dry goods store. Constant standing has brought on womb trouble, the symptoms of which she describes fully. She says: "Help me if you can. There are several girls I know who have written to Mrs. Pinkham, and been cured by her advice and medicine."

FROM PENNSYLVANIA. Mrs. Mary Smylie, who resides at 2078 E. Susquehanna Avenue, Kensington, Phila., writes: "I am a working girl, and must stand eleven hours every day. I have suffered terribly from painful menstruations and backache. At times my head was so dizzy I could hardly see. A friend recommended your Vegetable Compound. I am different girl now; no more aches and pains. Oh, thank you, thank you!"

The above extracts from many hundred letters received daily by Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., go to show how easily ailing women can obtain advice and relief. Write to Mrs. Pinkham. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful female medicine known to the world, can be obtained of any druggist in the land.
